

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS

1. Any contract of sale undertaken by Aerospace and Controls Technology Limited (“the Company”) is deemed to incorporate these terms and conditions: no variation of or modification of or substitution for these terms and conditions (even if included or referred to in the document placing the order) shall be binding on the Company unless specifically accepted by the Company in writing.
2. Quotations made by the Company are valid for thirty days unless otherwise stated. The Company reserves the right to vary the terms after that period to meet any changes of any nature which have occurred subsequent to the date of quotation.
3. Discount may be specified at the time of quotation, otherwise payment is due within the period agreed. Payments not received within the agreed time may be subject to additional charges to cover the costs of obtaining the payment.
4. Customers ordering goods from the Company for the first time shall be issued with an invoice within five working days of the placement of the order. This invoice must be paid in full by return before the Company will commence with the production of the goods. Failure to pay for any goods on the due date shall give the Company the right to withhold further deliveries of goods ordered.
5. Title to the goods shall pass to the customer only on payment of full purchase price.
6. When goods are manufactured for the first time, the cost of any new tools will be charged to the customer in the absence of any special arrangement. These costs will be made known to the customer in the quotation. Such tools may not be removed from our control and shall remain the property of the Company.
7. Goods purported by the customer to be damaged or incorrect must be held for inspection. The Company must be informed of damaged or incorrect goods within five working days of delivery.
8. The company reserves the right to charge for any materials used or costs incurred at the time of cancellation. All cancellations of orders must be made in writing to the Company.
9. Should work be suspended at the request of, or delayed through, any fault of the customer for a period exceeding thirty days, the Company shall be entitled to payment for work already carried out and other additional costs, including storage.
10. Every effort will be made by the Company to ensue delivery schedules are met: however, delivery times are approximate and the Company cannot be held responsible for consequences of late delivery.
11. All delivery charges are to be met by the customer and will be added to the invoice.
12. Any contract subsisting between the company and the customer shall be construed in all respects in accordance with the Laws of England.
13. Sample Terms: All risk is passed to the Customer should an order be produced without approval of a sample.
